NEI submits the letter of intent (30 November 2012)

SANC acknowledges the letter of intent (within a week)

SANC provides pro-forma application (within a week)

Provider electronically returns the completed application form

Provider submits the curriculum and self-assessment tool to the Council (within three months)

SANC analyses the submitted documents (within six weeks)

Issuing of Accreditation Certificate to the Provider – if the application met the minimum requirements for accreditation

Letter to the provider on the outcome of the application (within a week)

Presentation of accreditation application and site visit report and recommendations to the Accreditation Committee (scheduled meeting)

Actual accreditation visit (within six months)

Scheduling of site visit by SANC audit team

Compilation of evaluation report to Accreditation Committee by reviewing panel (scheduled meeting)